

Margie Segal
50 Avenue A
New York, NY 10009

CHAIM STEINBERGER, P.C.
150 East 58th Street
Suite 2701
New York, NY 10155

August 25, 2014

Dear Mr. Steinberger,

I would like to take this opportunity to express my deep gratitude for the wonderful services that you provided for me during my recent divorce negotiations. I originally consulted with you regarding the break down of negotiations with a divorce mediator. I felt I needed a knowledgeable and experienced matrimonial attorney who could represent my needs and position.

Your professionalism and sensitivity to my situation were a great source of comfort to me throughout the entire process. Your attention to detail and to ensuring my understanding of the various situations and possible outcomes was beyond my expectations.

My hope going into this process was that I would emerge with a fair settlement that would keep me financially and emotionally secure going forward with my life. I believe that your awareness of this was evident through every step of the process. I feel that when a matrimonial attorney is needed it is important that the attorney be well versed in the laws as well as the individual client's unique situation. I also believe that the attorney must keep the client informed as to the myriad of details that need to be discussed and thoroughly understood by the client who may or may not understand legal issues, language and possible outcomes. You took the time to ensure that I understood every aspect of the agreement and that I made my own decisions based on the information you provided.

I continue to be happy with the results of your services. I would highly recommend your services to anyone in need of a matrimonial attorney.

Sincerely,
Margie Segal

Margie Segal